Dear Charles,

Breakthroughs happen at SickKids everyday thanks to the help of our generous supporters like you. The generosity of our supporters enables us to continue treating some of the most challenging medical cases in the world. By partnering with us at the forefront of children's health care, parents are given hope, and kids are given the opportunity to live their lives to the fullest.

On behalf of SickKids Foundation, I would like to thank you for believing in SickKids. Your recurring gift enables SickKids to pursue pioneering scientific and clinical advancements in paediatric health care. Millions of children have benefited from our specialized expertise in healing, our focus on learning and our commitment to investigative breakthroughs. Rich possibilities in kids' health care await discovery.

Thank you again for your generosity. It is a gift to children everywhere.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Huang
